

The royal banquet

The Big Rajah was founded by John Joseph Xavier; one of Malaysia's pioneering figures in commercial food catering. Today, much of the day-to-day business is spearheaded by his son, John William Xavier, who has further honed the art and science of catering and function management to a new level of excellence.

They are backed by a formidable team of support staff whose mission is to make every function that they undertake, a resounding success.

commitment and the highest standards of professionalism to take the load off your mind – and make your special function really special!

Your function – make it really special!

The wedding of your dreams. That exquisitely beautiful garden party. The lavish birthday or anniversary celebration that has everyone talking. Corporate functions worthy of your esteemed image. Event launches that launch a new standard of excellence. From serving kings, ambassadors, government ministers to tens of thousands as well as mid-scale affairs, the secret of a successful function is – The Big Rajah!

To ensure that every function they undertake is a great success, The Big Rajah limits their undertaking to only 5 a day, maybe 2 big functions and 3 small ones. The Big Rajah is capable of serving 800-900 guests at a single party.

The proprietor, John William Xavier says, "I can make a lot of money by taking on each and every function I receive, but my customers might not be satisfied with the sloppy service they get. So I only accept what we can manage to the highest degree."

The Big Rajah is an all-in-one, full services food catering and rental management company. With over 20 years of experience in making their client's functions a success, they provide an extensive range of services encompassing the A to Z of function requirements. They cater for every type of functions, big or small, they give you their utmost

The finest food selections

The food menu is fully customisable. In fact, the whole function is wholly customisable, moving on, The Big Rajah specialises in fine Malaysian cuisine, encompassing Indian, Malay, Chinese and Western foods. The proof is in the eating – The Big Rajah's tantalising food choices has people coming back for more!

Their kitchen operates 24 hours a day, sometimes even 48 or 72 hours without stop. So you can count on fresh food served at your table. Impressively, they don't even have a cold storage. Food is brought in and goes straight into the cooking pot, and then they are brought directly to you without delay! There is also no compromise on ingredients of the highest quality. Food are prepared and served cleanly and hygienically.

You can even opt for live performance. Food doesn't come fresher than when the stalls come to you. Prepared before your eyes in authentic style, The Big Rajah chefs demonstrate their flair for live performance. You can even ask for a dish done exactly to your liking.

Coverings of strength and grandeur

Outdoor events are not complete without the right coverings. With The Big Rajah, they are not just any coverings – from tents to canopies and grand marquees, their wide selections are amongst the best available in the country to make a long lasting impression.

Their services also include events management. There is one department especially dedicated just to plan your function. Planning of your function can include creative décor, presentation, food presentation, hotel-style grand entry, ambience lighting, unique table set-ups, creative buffet set-ups, cocktails and bar services, classic round dome services, and special food garnishing. The cutlery, crockery and other tableware are of the highest quality, not just recyclable plastic forks and paper plates.

Best of all, the consultation services is offered absolutely free as part of their package.
